Dedication

No one exemplifies the ideals of brotherhood and equality more than Mr. Chapman. His range of friends is wide, so much so that he and his acquaintances have become an Eastridge legend. Through his seven years at Eastridge, he has not only prepared hundreds of students for the English Regents Examination, but has enriched our knowledge of all types of people from all walks of life.

He has shown us that fascinating individuals are to be found all over the world.

For imparting his goodwill and faith in men to all those who know him, we, the Class of 1965, dedicate our yearbook to our teacher and friend, Mr. Paul E. Chapman.

FOR RE WE WO RD

"It is for us the living rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.
It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—
... that we here highly resolve ... that this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom and that government of the people, by the people,
for the people
shall not perish from the earth."

Our Pageant reporter, Rover, confronted some faculty members with questions involving the Class of '65. The following pictures suggest their answers:

Do you feel that the Funny Company is a subversive organization?

We're investigating them now.

That's one of them - right behind us.

They took my knife.

I'm not allowed to divulge information.

One of them even asked me for some arsenic!

Just wait for the next issue of the Oracle.

Whom do you think I play cards with on Saturday?

We're checking their records.

Heh, heh - here's the report.

I should know, I'm their leader.

What do you think of the Senior berets?

They sure aren't for swimming.

Who me?

You think I'd tell you?

They're French, aren't they?

Well, I'll say that . . . they'll pass.

What do you think of them?

They were using them for flying saucers!

In the future, what will remind you of the Class of '65?

Is it 1965 already?

A ghost!

Supercalifragilisticex
pialidocious!

Well, I'll tell 'ya . . .

Class of '65 . . . hmm.

Sentence fragments.

Run-ons, too.

I'll tell you after they leave.

Who durst defy his majesty?

The winter snows have covered their graves but the cannon of the Union Army stand guard over the dead in the National Cemetery at Gettysburg.

Salute to Sandra Fontana

Alessandra Fontana, better known as Sandra, came to Eastridge from Genoa, Italy, in August, 1964. She eagerly anticipated the beginning of school, where her schedule included American History, English 12, Public Speaking, Personal Typing, German IV, French V, and gym. She participated in such extra-curricular activities as Marina Club, German Club, Cosmopolitan Club, Variety Show, and various intramurals. One of Sandra's greatest thrills was being crowned as Eastridge's queen for East-West Weekend. An assembly featuring her native country, the decision to fly the Italian flag in front of school, and the choice of an Italian theme for the senior ball were all in favor of our exchange student.

Dr. Odell places the Italian flag above Sandra's picture in the auditorium.

Before I left Genoa, last year, they told me that it was going to be unforgettable, but only when I arrived here did I realize that it was really so. I've been an American girl for one year, I've known American people, I've learned to love them because they have been so nice, so kind to me. I've lived with a wonderful family, my second family, the Callins, I've found the most wonderful sister in the world, Susie, I've attended Eastridge. I've found another home, I've found more friends, I've had unforgettable experiences. Among my dearest souvenirs will be Eastridge and my school-mates; how can I forget the crowded halls, the lunch periods with Jeri, Cheryl, Roxanne, Sharon, Karen ... the public speaking class with Miss Webster, Fran, Ed, Mike ... and typing with John, Sue and all the others? I hope only two things: that you'll remember me, and to come back soon to see you all again. Thank you for having given me this year.

... At the Assembly and Reception

Cheryl Demasio, Sharon Blake, and Dr. Odell look on as Sandra presents the Italian flag.

"The Tarantella", an Italian folk dance, is played by members of the Wind Ensemble and danced by Fran Giambrone, Cheryl Demasio, and Jeri Lippa.

The reception line: Dr. Willink, Mrs. Callin, Susan Callin, Sandra, and Randy Callin.

Sandra talks with Miss Marion Smith at the reception.

... As East-West Weekend Queen

The Wind Ensemble, directed by Mr. Alfred Castle, plays for the Italian assembly.

At the East-West weekend Dance, Sandra is surrounded by her attendants.

The war was on! It was September, 1961, and troops numbering in the hundreds disembarked at Fort Eastridge. Through the guidance and understanding of our advisors, Mrs. Barrett and Mr. Harrison and generated by our teachers, we engaged in our battle of the books. A central government was formed headed by Jim Rivaldo, Sharon Blake, Flo Pelliccia, and Cathie Angle. We joined ranks with our football troops and coaches to secure the traditional Tomahawk and War Bonnet of Blue and White Weekend. Cheryl Demasio played in the Diary of Anne Frank. Gordie McKusick was on the All County Track Team and Greg Costich was undefeated in diving competition. To promote spirit and excitement, our forces were cheered on by Fran Giambrone, Cathie Angle, and Sally Dausch. At the town meeting place all were enlightened with the admonitions and strategy given by Ann Landers.

It was September '62 and a new government under the auspices of Ray Troiano, Les Radford, Jeri Lippa, and Bob Tabone was elected. We again fought the annual Blue and White Weekend but garnered only the War Bonnet. Gordon McKusick, Karen Miller, and Karen Harris were envoys to the All-County Choir to exercise their vocal leadership. Karen Miller was elected as Secretary to the Federal Government and Glen Payne led inspirational debates, defeating even Webster and Haynes. Gordie and Greg again triumphed on the field and in the pool, and Cheryl starred in The Crucible. Fran, Cathie, and Sally were joined by Georgia Abruscato, Ellen Heit, Chris Osborne, Debbie Kirkpatrick, Bette Gibaud, and Gerry DeCarlo, and their movements to promote school spirit became even more successful. The state government declared a temporary peace for its people; and a grand ball, "Crystal Christmas", was enjoyed by all. Its queen was Linda Grape, attended by Kathy DiFiore.

In September, 1963, the attack on Fort Ignorance was renewed and a new government was formed under Ray Troiano, John Licciardi, Kathy DiFiore, and Bob Tabone. Later in the year several soldiers were decorated with pins for leadership, scholarship, character, and service. Linda Baschnagel, Paul Speranza, Gordie McKusick, Karen Harris, Jim Rivaldo, Ray Troiano, Carol Schwartz, Donna Swart, Chris Osborne, Fran Giambrone, Cathie Angle, and Peggy van Reuth were the names that were permanently recorded in the logbook of the National Honor Society.

Our society grew more diversified and talented in every field. Dan Viele, Ray Troiano, Mark Dapier, Doug Luepke, and Mark Glamack were on our Section V Championship Basketball Team; Greg Costich took top honors for breaking a Monroe County League record in diving; and Steve Mackintosh was on the All County 200 yd. Medley Relay swim team. Gordie again headed the All County and State Section V trackmen in the mile, and Ron Rauscher distinguished himself in wrestling. Sharon Blake, Karen Harris, Karen Miller, and Cheryl Demasio made the All-State Sectional Choir. We had many leading statesmen such as Jim Rivaldo and Sharon Blake who were elected to the Federal government offices of vice-president and secretary, respectively. Chris Osborne, Karen Harris, Jim Rivaldo, and Steve Mackintosh were representatives at the Syracuse University Citizenship Conference, and Glen Payne went to the Rochester Association of the United Nations. Jim Rivaldo won the distinct honor of the Harvard Book Award, and both he and Peggy van Reuth were honored with a summer abroad as exchange students in France through the Rennes-Rochester Program; while Gordie McKusick spent an enchanting summer in the troubled country of Greece. John Licciardi won the Rochester District Golf Championship, and Anita Colburn placed third in Monroe County Typing Competition.

Many excelled in the literary and drama fields. Cheryl won the best actress award for her role as Medea in Euripedes' Medea at the Geneseo Drama Festival. Marge Walter won an award in oral interpretation of poetry, and Sally Dausch won a first place as one-half of the best acting duo to enter the festival. Due largely to their efforts, these Eastridge champions carried the complete drama trophy home to us. Outstanding in the literary field were Judy Peters, Cathy Julian, Steve Mac-kintosh, and Beth Grammar whose entries won prizes in the literary contest sponsored annually by the Phoenix. Bette Gibaud, Gordie McKusick, and Judy Minnamon also gave proof of their spelling proficiency by being winners of the NOMA spelling awards.

In the 1963's East-West Weekend battle, we were partially victorious, capturing the War Bonnet. Our battalion was represented by a lovely queen, Karen Miller. Gordie McKusick, Cheryl Demasio, Mike Law, and Alexander Soos entertained our troops with the musical production, Roberta. A second ball was held, entitled "Shangra-La", and its queen was Karen Harris, attended by Sharon Blake and Cathie Angle. In a sudden burst of patriotism, our alma mater was written and a new annex to Fort Eastridge was approved.

The year 1964 brought a new government headed by Kathy DiFiore, John Licciardi, Karen Harris, and Jeri Lippa. Jim Rivaldo and Sharon Blake, joined by Paul Speranza, again won national elections, but this time in the highest Federal government positions of president, vice-president, and treasurer, respectively. In our last East-West battle, the Eastridge lancers carried the prized Tomahawk from the field, and our beautiful foreign diplomat Sandra Fontana from the Italian Embassy reigned as queen. A volunteer squad undertook at this time to record the history of this great war in a special report called Pageant.

Between battles we were again entertained by the theater. Doug Smith, Gordie McKusick, Chris Osborne, Cheryl Demasio, and Marge Walter starred in Tom Jones while Karen Miller, Jeff Parsons, Gordie McKusick, and Phil Ganter were featured in the Christmas opera, Amahl and the Night Visitors. A melodrama, Dirty Work at the Crossroads, was our last dramatic endeavor. Sally Dausch, Jeff Parsons, Mike Law, Doug Smith, Gerry DeCarlo, Sharon Blake, Karen Miller, Judy Tuttobene, and Debbie Andrews shared the stage as heroines, villains, heroes, and debutants.

Outstanding members of our town won National Merit as Linda Adkin, Bob Andrea, Art Arenius, Linda Baschnagel, Beth Grammer, Karen Harris, Gordie McKusick, Jeff Parsons, Flo Pelliccia, Jim Rivaldo, Ray Troiano, and Peggy van Reuth qualified in the National Merit Scholarship examination.

Finally at Commencement Court House, June 26, 1965, our own particular time of crisis was brought to an end marked by both victory and sadness. Our Emancipation Proclamation was pronounced by Dr. Odell and, freed except by voluntary ties of loyalty to our Alma Mater, we now march along new roads to the future.

Our Alma Mater, Our Eastridge High We're ever loyal as all the years go by Blue and white we honor thee
Love for thee we bring Hail Eastridge High School
To thee we sing

Halls of our Eastridge we'll ne'er forget Ours to accomplish the many goals we've set Faithfulness we give to thee
Through our high school days
Honor to Eastridge in every way

The purpose of the English program is to give the students a basic knowledge of English grammar and literature. Students perfect their grammar and vocabulary through reading and creative writing. They broaden their knowledge of the world's history and peoples by reading and learning to understand the classics. The English program culminates in the senior year with the rotating English course.

Social Studies

The Social Studies Department has three required courses: Economic World, World History, and American History. A two year Advanced Placement American History course was instituted last year for the more academically able juniors and seniors. There are also elective courses in this field. The Problems of Democracy class discusses human relations in our democratic nation. The Society and the Arts course is similar to a college Humanities course in which team teaching is used to correlate Social Studies, Art, and Music.

Basic Art
Miss Rita Bates

The Art courses try to develop each student's creative potential to the fullest. In Basic Art, the students work with a variety of media in two and three dimensional design. The Creative Crafts course utilizes materials such as clay, metal, and wood to teach the student the relationship of the material to the design. In other Art courses, the student can study commercial art or painting.

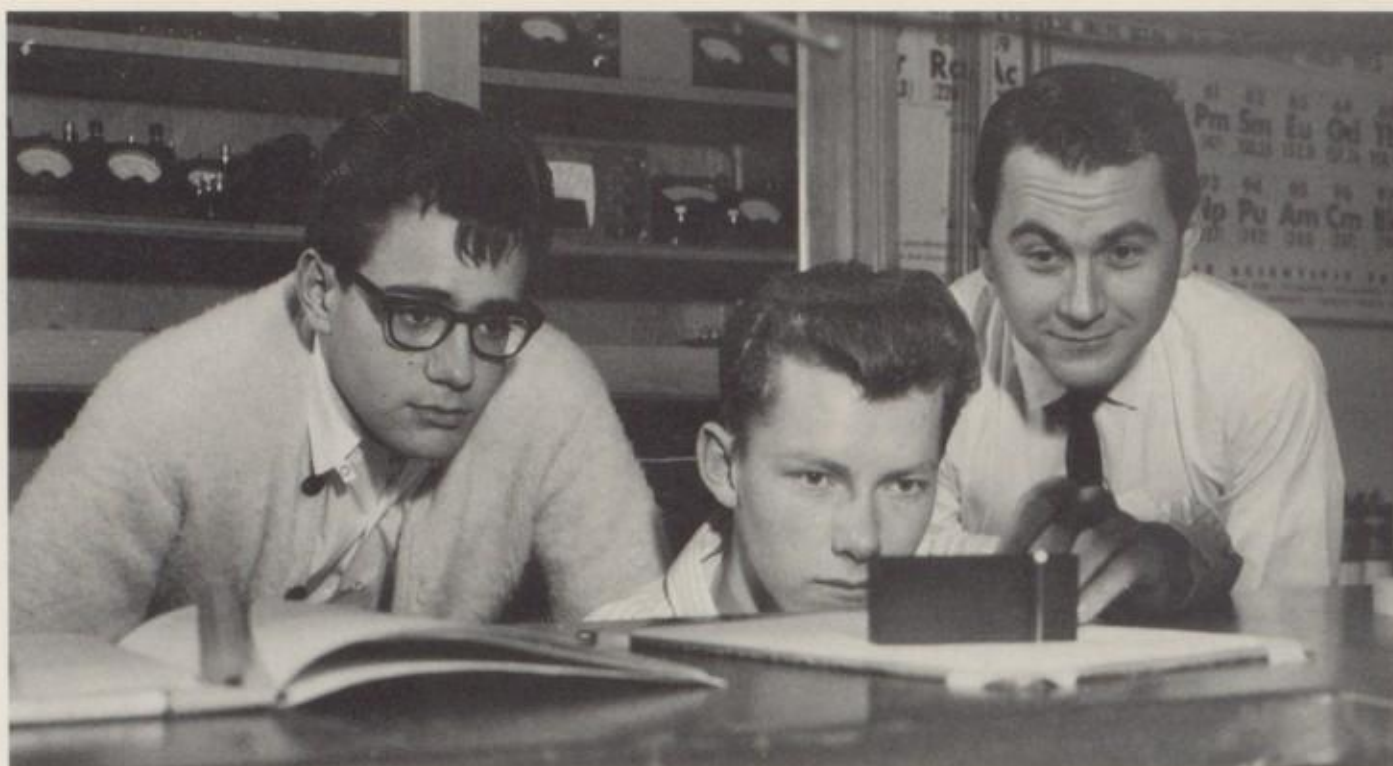

Home Economics

Home Economics III
Miss Isabell Falsone

Home Economics helps students to develop a satisfying personal, family, and community life. Classes study human relationships, budgeting, clothing and textiles, health and safety, child development and care, food and nutrition, and housing equipment and furnishings.

Science

P.S.S.C. Physics
Mr. John Euler

The science Department has changed the program of studies offered in the existing science courses, as well as adding several new, more advanced courses. The General Science course now contains much elementary chemistry and physics. Biology classes are enriched by the extensive use of films and other audio-visual aids. Tenth grade students can study Chemistry in an accelerated program which offers B.S.S.C. Biology, P.S.S.C. Physics, or Advanced Chemistry in the junior and senior years.

Music Department

The Music Department of Eastridge consists mainly of three choirs and three bands which meet during school hours. From these large groups which total approximately 500 students, many smaller groups are formed such as Concert Choir, Vocal Quartets, Dance Band and Pep Bands.

Vocal Music

Over 300 melodious voices are represented in the four choirs directed by Mr. Lawrence Beck. These choirs provide music for the variety shows and musicals, and also present the school with Christmas and spring concerts. Of special interest this Christmas was the production of the opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors." The activities of the choirs include appearances at local functions and conventions. The big project of the Senior Choir is their annual tour. In the past they have given concerts at Alfred, Hobart, and the New York World's Fair. This year's plans called for a trip to Washington, D.C. The choir members combine efforts to earn money for the trip by car washes, baked-food sales, pancake suppers and dances.

Besides the Concert Choir selected from the "cream of the crop" of the Senior Choir, quartets are chosen by Mr. Beck which sing for the Variety Show and special occasions.

Instrumental Music

The Instrumental Department has three bands which meet during the school day throughout the year. The largest group is the Symphony Band. This group does all the marching that is required, especially for football games and the Memorial Day parade. It is actually the Senior Band. From this band four other smaller groups are chosen. The very best are put into a smaller group called the Wind Ensemble. This band competes in New York State Music Contests and performs where it is best to have a small select group. Out of the Symphony Band, Mr. Castle picks enough members to have two Assembly Bands.

These players play for all assemblies. A small pep band is chosen to play for pep rallies and sports events. The buglers are members of the Symphony Band. The Junior Band or Concert Band is a smaller group which works as a "feeder" to the Symphony Band. The Dance Bands accompany the musicals and variety shows. On June 12 they played for the National Scout Jamboree in West Point. All the bands are conducted by Mr. Alfred Castle and Mr. Nicholas DeAngelo.

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent, a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation, so conceived, and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met here on a great battlefield of that war. ^{have} ~~have~~ ^{come} ~~come~~ to dedicate a portion of it as ^a ~~the~~ final resting place ^{for} of those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But in a larger sense we can not dedicate—we can not consecrate—we can not hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who cling gladly here, have consecrated it far above our ^{low} power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished ^{work}, which they have thus far, so nobly carried on. It is rather

First page of the second draft of the Gettysburg Address.
This copy, made by Lincoln on the morning of November 19, was held in his hand while delivering his address.

ACTIVITIES

The Soldier's National Monument in the Gettysburg National Cemetery honors Lincoln as well as the soldiers buried there for it marks the site where Lincoln spoke at the dedicatory exercises.

Gettysburg—Today it is fun: a little over a century ago, it was the real thing. The youngsters are shown playing at war with wooden muskets at Devil's Den, where in 1863 Union and Confederate troops clashed in Civil War.

The Lancers finished the season with a 5-2-1 record. This record included the win over rival Irondequoit High School in the traditional East-West Weekend rivalry. Our strong defense blanked five opponents and gave opposition an average of only four points in eight games.

John Lederman, a real tough aggressive guard, was the only Eastridge player chosen for the All-County Western Conference Football Team. Appointed to the second team were Tom Turchetti and Ray Triano.

Dennis Amico, #21, makes tackle for EHS against Newark. Other players are: #24, S. Mastrosimone; #35, J. Lederman; #19, T. Turchetti; and #28, Dan Scalzo.

Varsity Basketball

This year's team has definitely performed beyond its capacity. Lacking in size, the team has used aggressive zone pressure as their main defense. They have an overall record of 9-9 and a league record of 5-5.

The team was composed of five seniors, six juniors, and one sophomore. Senior captain, Dan Viele, averaged 19.6 points per game and was the only remaining member of the starting lineup from last year's sectional team.

Outstanding juniors Randy Miller and Bill Spadoni, as well as the other team members from this year's team, provide next year's team with a good nucleus.

New Twist for a High Dive

Sequence camera catches Greg Costich, Eastridge High's skillful diver, performing a forward one twist, free position in yesterday's meet against Fairport.

1 - Costich steadies himself on board, concentrating on dive.

2 - He leaves board and begins somersault bend.

3 - Completing somersault, he starts a twist.

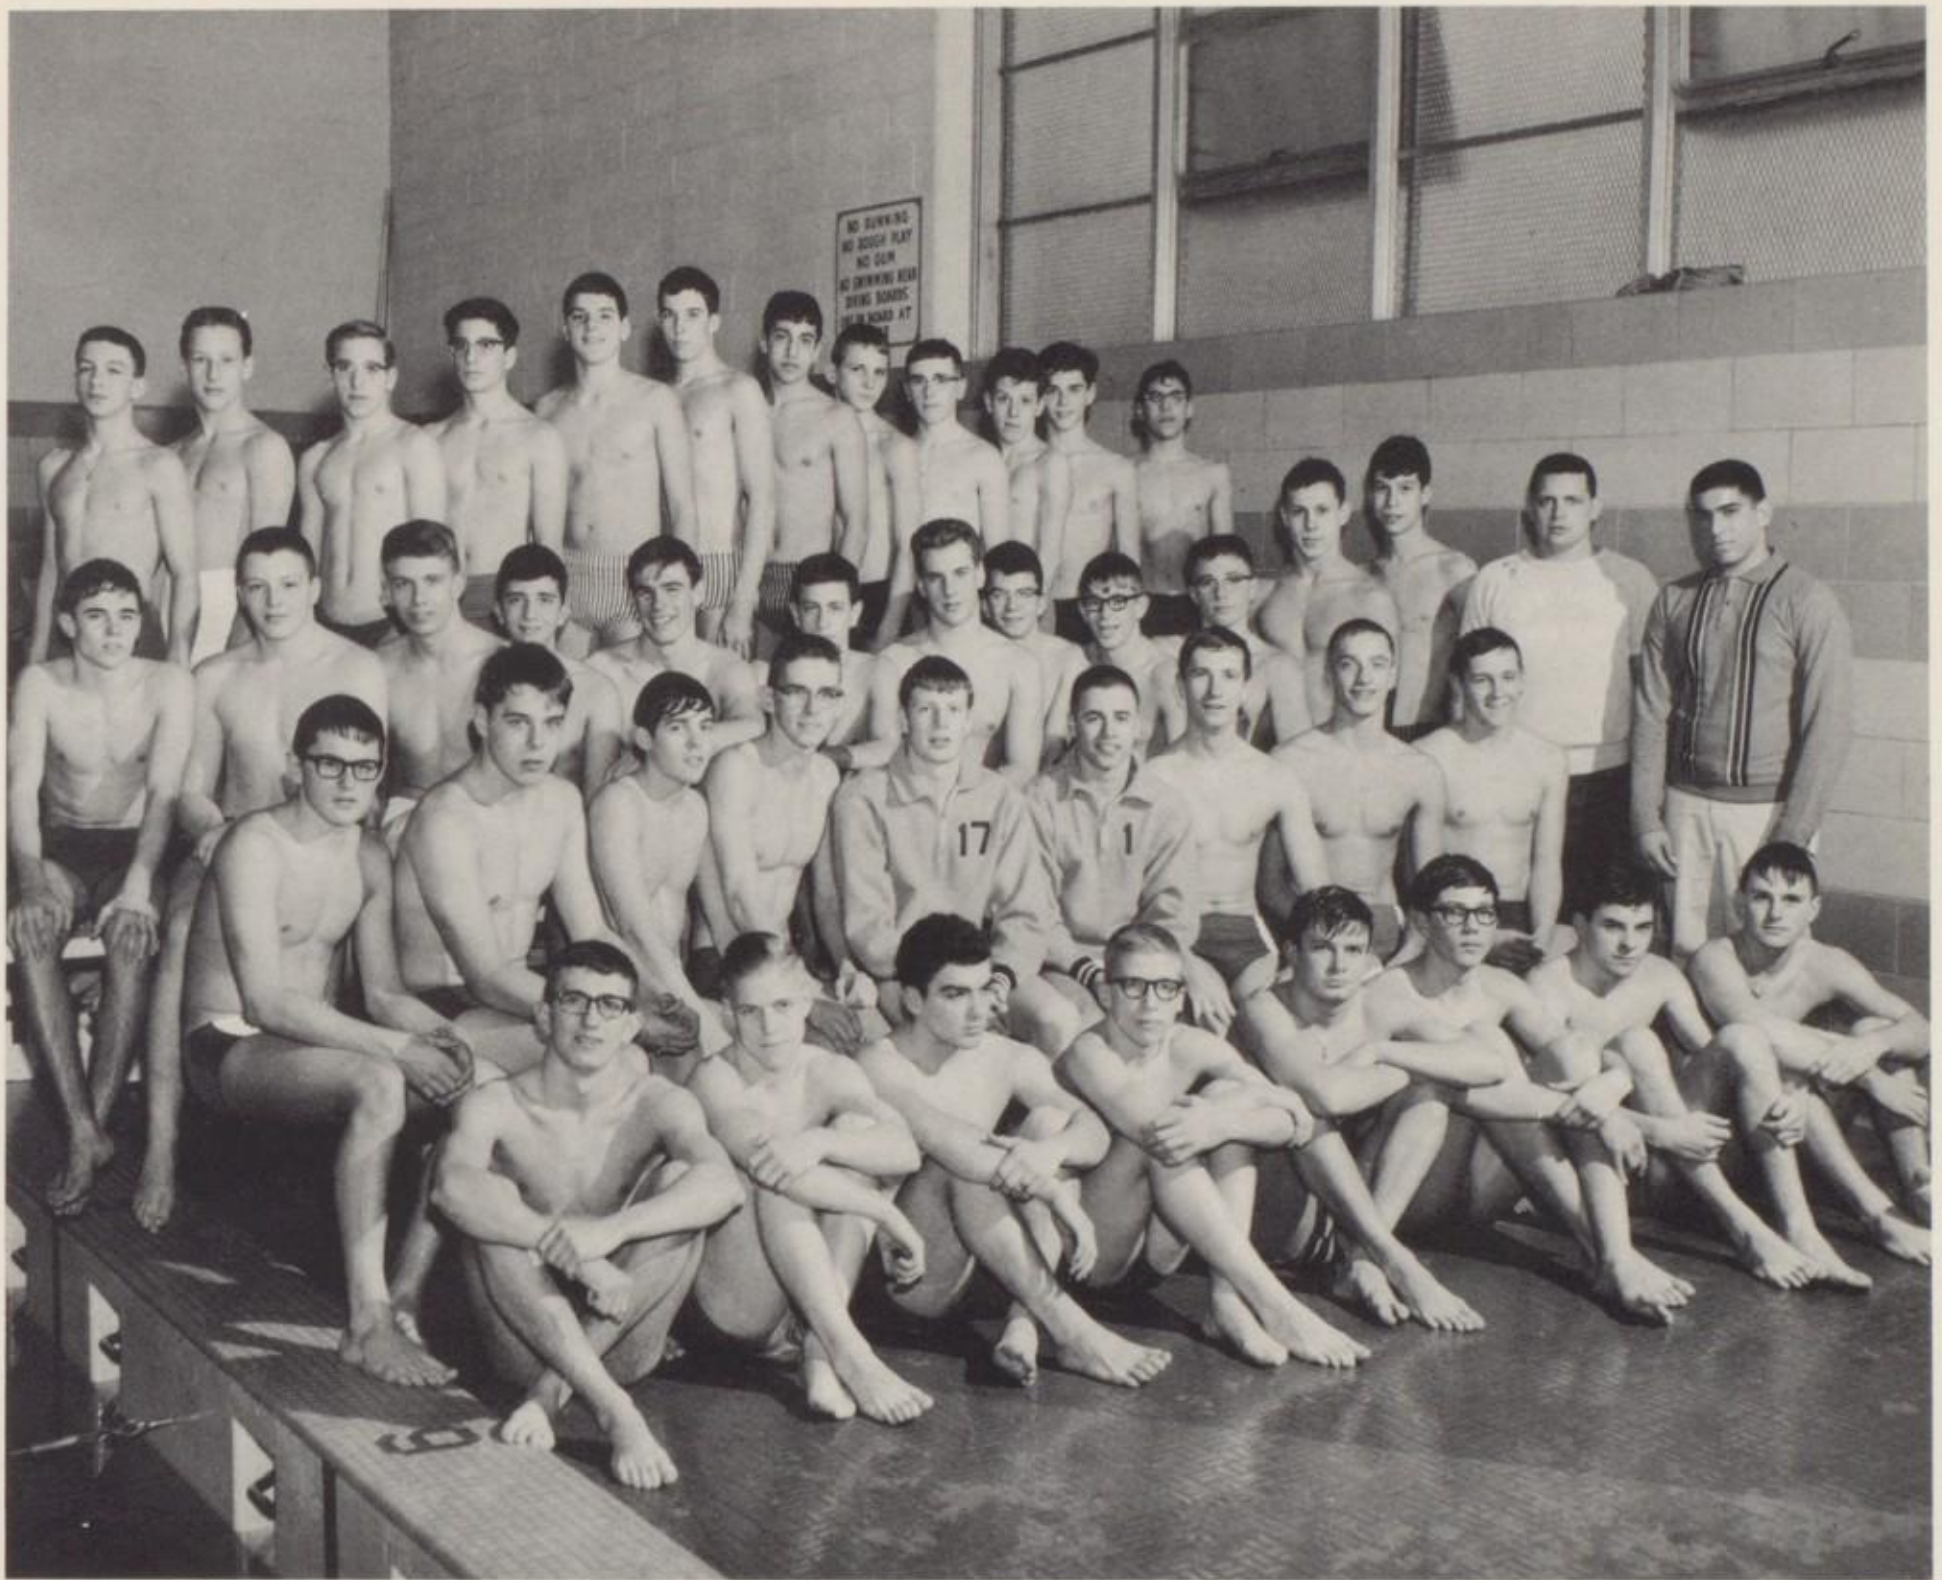

4 - Maneuvers his body into position to hit water.

5 - Now erect, he makes perfect splash landing.

With Costich's help Eastridge defeated Fairport 62-32.

The Eastridge Swim Team finished the season with a twelve-two record which placed them in a three way tie for second place in Monroe County with Brighton and Penfield. The victories included a win over Penfield and an upset victory over Irondequoit.

Several records, including two Monroe County records, were broken this year. The 200 yd. medley relay team of Randy Magin, Steve Mackintosh, Pat Siconolfi, and Bob Waltersdorf set a new county record with a time of 1:49.2. Greg Costich, the defending Monroe County Diving Champion, set a new county record with a total of 253.35 points. Dave Wilkinson set three school records in the 100, 200, and 400 yd. freestyle. Steve Mackintosh set a new school record in the 100 yd. breaststroke and Randy Magin set a school and pool record in the 200 yd. individual medley.

The team will be losing several of their outstanding members. They include co-captains Steve Mackintosh and Greg Costich, as well as Pat Baudin, Mark Bippes, Mark Clarcq, Brian Hauss, John Robertson, and Pat Siconolfi.
